

Fleetcare Indigenous Leader Scholarship 2024 Academic Year

Diploma of Leadership and Management

Background

Management in the fleet and automotive industry has become a multi-faceted and globally recognised discipline requiring a more strategic approach to the management of an important corporate resource. With a portfolio in the millions of dollars and responsibility for a variety of management functions, it is increasingly important to understand and drive the factors that influence decisions so fleet & automotive professionals can meet the organisation's objectives. Fleet & automotive professionals can significantly lead and manage their team, customers and possess skills required for coaching strategies and frameworks to improve individual performance.

The program focuses on the everyday challenges and opportunities in managing their portfolios, teams and provide effective leadership for their organisation. The Diploma of Leadership and Management is a highly practical and interactive program and has been designed to allow the individual to apply the new learnings directly back into the workplace.

Why a Scholarship?

Fleetcare recognises the importance of professionalising the fleet and automotive industries and have embraced an opportunity to offer annual scholarships for AfMA's Diploma of Leadership and Management.

AfMA acknowledges the need for scholarship winners to remain independent of suppliers of products and services and therefore AfMA determine scholarship winners based on their detailed application and submission. Fleetcare is not involved in selecting the scholarship winner.
